

The American Scandinavian
Society of New York, Inc.

It is Time to Renew your 2019 Membership

The purpose of the Society is to promote and strengthen the cultural, educational and intellectual relations between the United States and Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden.

The Society arranges a variety of activities such as concerts, art exhibits, gallery tours, lectures, storytelling, outings, receptions and the Annual Festive Christmas Ball. The Society cooperates with other organizations with same or similar goals. The Society's main mission and focus is the Cultural Grants which are given out at the Annual Membership Meeting in May/June every year.

We truly appreciate all of our members and we strive to offer certain benefits. By presenting your updated membership card, you will enjoy a 10% discount on meals at "Smørgås Chef, Scandinavia House"; plus being invited to "Members only" events. The date is set for this year's Christmas Ball taking place at the beautiful Metropolitan Club in NYC, please mark your calendar for December 6th, 2019. Early Bird tickets will be available for purchase by members only.

Please return this notice with your payment for 2019 before June 1st
